SUMMARY

I have allways been the practical, solution finder, fast learner and the negotiater one all my life. Most of the time, find myself while translating Turkish to Turkish and solving team members communication problems. Eager to use those qualities in development process as a good member of Frontend Development team.

I am interested in JavaScript, ReactJs and excited to learn full lifecycle of Frontend Development process. I feel comfortable with English speaking, listening and communicating, able to learn from English documents and solve my problems. You can review my projects on my GitHub account and my portfolio page.

After working and improving myself about the Frontend development, gaining Backend skills and to be a Full Stack Developer is my mid term planning.
